My dear Miri,

It is a deep pleasure to read this beautiful monograph about Uri and his life as a composer. It is also an opportunity to become more fully informed about his many works and accolades and the unique artistic vision which informed his life. This vision was a great inspiration to me as a young student. Uri was an unforgettable mentor and human being. I feel deeply blessed to have known him.

Joel and I treasure the connection and closeness we shared with you, Uri, David and Sarit in that special time of our lives. The memories remain fresh and precious.

Much love always,

Diane
